

THERE'RE AFTER HIM.

All the Candidates Seek the Good Graces of George B. Cox.

NONE KNOW COX'S CHOICE.

Republican Leaders and Many of the Delegates Are on the Ground to Attend the State Convention at Columbus.

Columbus, O., May 31.—Although the Republican state convention does not meet till Thursday afternoon, the leaders, as well as many of the delegates, are here now.

All the candidates, including an even dozen for governor and almost 100 for other places on the state ticket, are busy at their respective headquarters. There is so much at stake on the governorship this year, affecting old contending factions, that the usual combinations with candidates for other places on the state ticket are not being attempted in the interest of leaders for the governorship.

It is expected that there will be opposing slates formed before the balloting begins on Friday.

In addition to the unusual number of candidates, contesting for nominations, there are 203 of 813 delegates contesting for seats from the following counties: Adams, 6; Allen, 6; Cuyahoga, 58; Franklin, 34; Hamilton, 86; Highland, 7; Preble, 6. The contest for seats was the main thing, and on the report of the committee on credentials may depend the selection of the state ticket, especially the nomination for governor.

It is thought that the 34 Nash delegates from Franklin and the 86 Cox delegates from Hamilton will be seated on prima facie evidence, but testimony will be offered in hearing the cases of the other five contested counties.

Bushnell, Kurtz, McKisson and others opposed to Senator Hanna, have been actively at work during the day. George B. Cox of Cincinnati, who is the most conspicuous personage on the ground, if not the most potential factor in the convention, has been at the headquarters of Nash and other candidates, as well as with Bushnell, Kurtz, McKisson and others of "the opposition," and he still maintains an attitude of silence which with his balance of power causes much anxiety. All the candidates are after him, but none of them know who Cox is after.

Sentor Hanna arrived at 3 p. m. from Cleveland and Senator Foraker later in the evening from Cincinnati.

Congressmen Grosvener, Shattuck, Kerr, Dick, Van Vorhes and other Republican congressmen, who will attend the speakership conference Thursday night, were among the early arrivals. It is reported that Senators Foraker and Hanna may be invited to the conference of Ohio Republican congressmen on the speakership.

The candidates for governorship spent the time in calling on each other and exchanging greetings as a sort of prelude for harmony in the end.

Among the speakers for presenting names are the following: Nash by Henry C. Taylor, Daugherty by Charles Holcomb, Jones by L. W. King, Nevins by Judge Brit Brown, Hull by L. W. King, Durbin by Judge Moses M. Granger. Senator Foraker is prominently mentioned for permanent chairman.

Large playcards were put out about the city with the following inscription on them: "Nominate George B. Cox's candidate for governor and you lose Hamilton county. Loose Hamilton county and you lose the state."

On investigation it was found that $10 per day is paid for the right to display these large playcards on each building, and there is two arch electric lights each with one.

The contracts with property owners and with the electric light company were made last week, and it is supposed that this is a movement on the part of the anti-Cox men at Cincinnati, but it is impossible to ascertain the identity of those who had these displays made about the city.

COLUMBUS ATTORNEY

Shot Down on the Street by a Disappointed Litigant.

Columbus, O., May 31.—E. O. Ricketts, well-known attorney, was shot in the right groin on Gay street, near High, by David R. Adams, a disappointed litigant. Mr. Ricketts was accompanied by his wife and sister-in-law, Mrs. Weisman, and the affair caused great excitement. The women created a scene.

Ricketts did not fall to the ground. He cried out, "My God, I'm shot." The assailant, Adams, then appeared to be making another effort to pull the trigger of his revolver, when one of the ladies struck him on the arm with an umbrella.

The wounded man was removed to the Protestant hospital, where the physicians decided to use the x-rays to locate the ball. He is the son of J. S. Ricketts, a real estate dealer. He said that Adams fired the shot without previous warning, and without saying anything which would indicate his intention.

Adams was arrested. He was formerly a wealthy farmer of Pickaway county. Some time ago his wife fled suit against him for divorce, and when the case was tried it resulted in the wife being granted $2,000 alimony. Then Adams made an assignment. Since losing his property, Adams has been ugly, and was regarded by some as crazy. He said: "The trouble between Ricketts and myself is over a contract in which is involved $12,500. That contract concerns Ricketts, Judge David F. Pugh and myself. I will not now divulge the nature of the contract."

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., May 31.—The Vine Street Star Mutual Aid association, Cincinnati; the Mutual Aid society of the Employees of the Case Manufacturing company, Columbus; the Menonite Home, located near Marshallville; the Peters and Reed Pottery company, South Zanesville, capital stock $10,000.

Echo of "Old Calico" Road.

Zanesville, O., May 31.—Henry Miller has filed a petition in bankruptcy, in which he gives his liabilities as $358,787 and assets nothing. This great liability come from his connection with an abandoned railroad project known as the "Old Calico" railroad.

Wages Restored.

Akron, O., May 31.—The employees of the Cleveland, Akron and Columbus railway, which recently passed into the ownership of the Pennsylvania company, have had the 10 per cent cut in wages made in 1893 restored. The increase will take effect May 9.

Charter Granted.

Charleston, W. Va., May 31.—A charter has been issued to the Ohio Consolidated Oil and Gas company of Canton, authorized capital $1,000,000.

Diseased Cattle.

Chicago, May 31.—As a result of tests made at the stock yards by the Live Stock Commissioners and health officials it has been discovered that all of twenty-five cows examined were suffering from tuberculosis. While there was no outward sign of the disease yet every cow was in an advanced stage of consumption. The milk from all of these cows was sold in the Chicago market a week ago.

Closed the Church.

St. Louis, Mo., May 31.—Because of the determined opposition of the parishioners of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church, in East St. Louis, to the appointment of Vicar General Cluse as their rector, Bishop Janssen will close the church. He says that until the members of St. Patrick's congregation submit and inform him they are ready to obey his commands the church will remain closed.

Death of Albert Pack.

Detroit, May 31.—Albert Pack, the well-known capitalist and late Republican candidate for United States senator in opposition to Senator Burrows, died at his home here from the effects of a surgical operation performed for the removal of gallstones. Mr. Pack was a close friend of Governor Pengree.

Have the Dust.

Seattle, Wash., May 31.—Advises from Dawson, dated April 29, state that there are evidences of the most wonderful output yet recorded. Five thousand men are in waiting at Dawson to take the first boats up the river. Half of them are miners who have from $1,000 to $50,000 each in dust.

Sudden Death.

New York, May 31.—Jacob M. Patterson, president of the state board of quarantine commissioners, was found dead at his home in Fordham. The cause of his death is unknown.

New York, May 31.—President McKinley has written to the police board declining the invitation to be present at the annual parade of the New York police force.

CAPTURE OF OFFICERS

From the American Hospital Ship Relief Given In Detail.

VENGENCE ON FRIENDLIES.

Since the Troops Have Been Withdrawn From San Ildro the Insurgents Have Made Life Miserable For Noncombatants.

Manilla, My 31.—Details regarding the capture by Filipinos of two officers of the United States hospital ship Relief have just been obtained. The Relief lies in the harbor here.

Third Officer Fred Heppy and Assistant Engineer Charis Blandford rigged a sail on one of the ship's boats and went sailing along the shore, on the south, opposite the insurgent lines. The boat became calmed near the shore and some natives in canoes with Filipinos on board put out and captured the two men who were unarmed and also took possession of the boat.

The United States turrethip Monadnock quickly sent a boat with a landing party ashore under cover of her guns and shelled the shore briskly. The natives, however, rushed the prisoners into the woods before the Monadnock's boat reached land.

Persons on board several other ships saw the affair through glasses, but were unable to prevent the capture of Messrs. Heppy and Blandford.

Friendly natives arriving here from the country around San Ildro and San Miguel report that a reign of terror has prevailed since the American troops were withdrawn from those parts of the island. The insurgents, who are returning there, deal vengeance upon those of their countrymen who have shown any friendship toward the Americans during the latter's occupation of the territory. The friendlies declare that unoffending people are being murdered daily, and that their houses are being burned and their property confiscated. Plenty of sympathizers with the insurrection remained during the Americans' stay, and they have been reporting these instances of friendliness toward our troops.

The refugees add that the inhabitants were badly oppressed by the native soldiers before the American occupation, but that their condition is worse now.

Doubtless there is much truth in the reports, though such stories from Filipino sources are always magnified.

Will Remain in Philippines.

Manilla, May 31.—Information has been received here that satisfactory results have attended the movement among members of the volunteer regiments in Manilla for the establishment of a large American colony in the Philippines. Four thousand of the volunteers now in the islands are reported to have signed a petition to the president and secretary of war, praying that they receive their discharges in Manilla, instead at the places of enlistment, and that they be allowed travel pay to the place of enlistment. It was explained that they believed the Philippine islands "offered rare opportunities for industrious and enterprising Americans to make for themselves homes," and that they desired to remain "for the purpose of taking part in the development of the mining, agricultural and industrial resources of the islands."

May Be a Hoax.

Paris, May 31.—The vicinity of the palace of justice was almost deserted when the court of cassation resumed bearing the arguments in the application for a revision of the Dreyfus trial. M. Manau, the procurator general, continued his speech. He contended that Major Count Esterbazy was the author of the bordereau, which has figured so prominently in the case and not Dreyfus. Esterbazy, however, having been acquitted of the authorship of the bordereau, cannot again be prosecuted. M. Manau said: "What proof exists that there has been acts of treason of a nature tending to compromise the security of the state? Are we not, perhaps, in the presence of a number of unimportant documents, as General Mercier thought and consequently, in the presence of a mysterious box, an audacious piece of swindling perpetrated by the author of the bordereau upon his foreign correspondent?"

New York, May 31.—Samuel H. Findley, the tax collector of San Luis Obispo county, Cal., from where he disappeared on Nov. 19, 1898, with about $15,000 of the county's money, arrived in New York from Lima, Peru, accompanied by a detective acting for the Fidelity and Deposit company of Maryland. As he landed he was arrested the request of the California authorities, and will be held for requisition papers.

WHITE METAL HOSTS.

Advocates of Bimetallism Open Their Meeting at Louisville.

Louisville, May 31.—The advocates of bimetallism look to Louisville as their mecca. The third annual session of the League of Bimetallic clubs of the Ohio valley was formally opened at 2 p. m.

The auditorium of the McCauley theater was crowded when President Tarvin's gavel fell.

The local committees on arrangements had left nothing undone. President James P. Tarvin was the first guest of distinction to arrive. He was met by an escort of Democratic clubs with two bands of music.

Ex-Governor John P. Altgeld of Illinois, George Fred Williams and ex-Congressman Drinkwater of Massachusetts, and General E. B. Finley of Ohio, were among the arrivals.

As to any political significance the convention may possess or may develop, nothing can be said now, although it is the opinion of the bimetallists here that the presence of so many of the leaders of the cause in Louisville can not fail to be attended with important results. Interest now hinges on the arrival of Mr. Bryan. He will respond to the toast "The Democratic Party," at the banquet to be given President Tarvin at the Galt house.

When everything was in readiness for the opening of the convention, Mayor Weaver advanced to the footlights, and in a few well-chosen words welcomed the delegates to the city, concluding by extending to them the keys of the Falls City. President Tarvin responded in behalf of the white metal hosts.

Still Hopeful For Settlement.

Washington, May 31.—Though less confident than it has been of settlement of the Alaskan boundary question, the administration is still hopeful that the negotiations being conducted by Secretary Hay and the British government will yet furnish a solution of the controversy. To a great extent the assembling of the high joint committee and the abrogation of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty depend upon the solution of the boundary question. Great Britain insists that the United States has more to gain by the abrogation of the Nicaragua canal convention and the settlement of the numerous question pending with Canada than she has, and that as an offset this government should be willing to make concessions in the boundary controversy.

Welcomed at Wichita.

Wichita, Kan., May 31.—The transmississippi congress opened with addresses of welcome by Governor Stanley of Kansas and Mayor Ross of Wichita, to which Governor Sayers of Texas and Governor Murphy of Arizona responded. Hon. Hugh Craig of San Francisco, president of the congress has wired that he can not attend. Hon. E. N. Moss of Great Bend, Kan., presides in his stead. Many delegates are accompanied by their wives. Territorial expansion and an American merchants' marine are the subjects of general agitation and little else is heard in the lobbies.

Brooklyn Strikes a Wreck.

New York, May 31.—The cruiser Brooklyn on Tuesday afternoon struck a hidden obstruction off the Battery in New York harbor, not far from the place where the battleship Massachusetts was injured. The Brooklyn was on her way from the navy yard to Grant's tomb, where she fired a salute. It is thought the cruiser hit a sunken wreck. She will go into the dry dock when the extent of her injury will be ascertained. The Brooklyn would have gone to sea to join Admiral Sampson's squadron at Newport but for the mishap.

Indian Head Destroyed.

New York, May 31.—Memorial day was signalized by the final destruction of one of the most historic points on the Palisades of the Hudson, known as Indian Head. A blast in which at least 10,000 pounds of dynamite were used was fired off at the quarries of the Carpenter Brothers, located at Coyotesville, near Fort Lee. The blast brought down about as nearly as can be estimated 200,000 tons of rock. It was the most successful effort ever made, and broke out of the Palisades an area surface of 75 feet frontage by 165 feet deep.

First Case of Yellow Fever.

New Orleans, May 31.—The illness of Miss Grillo, aged 17 years, was reported by her family physician as a suspicious case. The board of health at once had the house disinfected. Miss Grillo died Sunday afternoon. An autopsy was held, the result of which was laid before the board of experts, who, after careful consideration, reached the conclusion that the case presented evidences of yellow fever.

San Francisco, May 31.—The next place of meeting of the Baptists was fixed for Detroit, Mich., in May, 1900.

ANTICS OF STORM KING

Festive Tornado Swoops Down on Various Places in the West.

MANY BUILDINGS WRECKED.

The Chicago and Alton Depot Was Lifted From Its Foundation in a Small Town in Illinois—Damage Done in Iowa.

Lincoln, Ills., May 31.—A tornado passed over this city at 4 a. m. It traveled from the southwest and to the northeast, covering a territory 150 yards wide and extending 10 miles in length. The storm cloud was high when passing this city. It dropped at Lawndale, a small town 10 miles north. The Chicago and Alton depot was lifted from its foundation and carried several yards. Several store buildings were unroofed and many residences were badly damaged. Large forest trees were torn up by the roots. No deaths have been reported.

An Electric Storm.

Kansas City, May 31.—Kansas City and vicinity was visited by a severe electrical storm after midnight that lasted for an hour, and did more or less minor damage. In Kansas City electric light plants were temporarily disabled by lightning running in on the wires. Telegraph companies dependent upon them for power to run their dynamo batteries were interrupted, and electric lights in all parts of the city went out.

One Girl Killed.

Malvern, Ia., May 31.—A tornado swept over the northwest part of Miles county, doing considerable damage to farm property. The houses of John Rohrburg, a farmer, two miles north of Mineola, were destroyed. His daughter, aged 11, was killed. One boy had a leg broken and the balance of the family were injured.

Buildings Mowed Down.

Sioux City, Ia., May 31.—A small tornado struck near Kingsley, in Plymouth county. Buildings on three farms were reduced to kindling wood, but no loss of life is reported.

Three of a Kind.

Ponca, Neb., May 31.—Three tornadoes passed through this vicinity. None of them covered a wide area, and only one house was destroyed. Considerable live stock was killed.

SECOND-HAND DEALER

Becomes a Millionaire by the Decision of the Supreme Court.

Victoria, B. C., May 31.—By the allowance of the appeal in the case of Hobbs vs. the Esquimaux and Nanaimo Railway company by the supreme court of Canada, E. V. Hobbs, a second-hand dealer becomes a millionaire. His victory entitles him to the ownership of what is known as the East Wellington Extension mine.

Several years ago, Hobbs bought 160 acres of land comprised in the Esquimaux and Nanaimo railway grant. The purchase was made without reservation, but when the deed was completed the company included reservation of all coal and other minerals. Hobbs refused to accept this, and also refused the return of his purchase money, suing for specific performance of contract.

The highest tribunal of Canada has now granted the suit, thereby affirming Hobbs' right to the vast coal deposits that are being worked beneath his property.

Mandatory Mediation.

The Hague, May 31.—The amendment of Count Nigra, head of the Italian delegation to the peace conference to the Russian arbitration scheme, proposed the following article: "In the event of imminence of a conflict between two or more powers after the failure of all attempts at conciliation by means of indirect negotiations, the contending parties be obliged to have recourse to mediation for arbitration in cases indicated by the present act."

Prince Arthur Invited.

Gotha, May 31.—The diet has resolved that Prince Arthur of Connaught, heir presumptive to the throne of Saxo-Coburg and Gotha, be called as soon as possible to take up his residence in the duchies, receive a German education and become personally acquainted with the condition of his new home. Several of the speakers protested against the idea of the land and people of Saxo-Coburg and Gotha being treated as mere family heritages.

Washington, May 31.—The president declared to a congressional caller there was not at present and contemplation of largely increasing General Otis' forces in the Philippines. He said nothing had been received from General Otis which indicated the necessity for more troops beyond the regulars who are to be sent to relieve the returning volunteers.

NEW RAPID FIRE GUN.

A Brown County Man the Inventor of a Death Dealing Weapon.

[Barlow in Ripley Bee.]

A new rapid fire gun has been invented by an old soldier and member of the ordnance department in the late rebellion. It surpasses anything we know of for its speed in firing and range. It will throw fifteen balls per second or 900 per minute and all this at one loading. It will throw a ball two miles. At a distance of fifty yards it can take in the width of a full regiment in battle line or can be concentrated on any point of greater distance for two miles. It uses ordinary fixed ammunition and can be made to use either center or rim fire. It can be made to shoot balls of musket size up to inch elongated ones. Can be used as any ordinary light artillery. Two horses are sufficient to move it anywhere in action. It is lighter than an ordinary six-pounder and can use either common or smokeless powder. Five men are sufficient to handle this wonderful gun and horses. The whole is shielded, men and guns, from musketry and Gatling gun fire. We are not permitted to describe the gun fully as a patent will be applied for. The inventor is well known and reliable. We know him to be a first-class mechanic and a genius. It looks like it would be impossible for any man to live in front of it when fired at full speed. It is certainly more destructive than anything yet invented for the distance it will shoot. We are pleased to say the inventor's address is Hiett, Brown County, O.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

DRAWING AND MODELING.

Work of the Pupils of the City Schools, Now on Exhibition at the High School.

A word for the drawing on exhibition at the High School building. The general public has a much larger interest in the progress of art in this country than it is aware. It is a matter of importance that the young people of a town like this should add to the power of speech, and the ability to express thought in written language, the third and in certain respects the noblest art of self utterance, that of the pencil and brush.

The power of expression which comes through the pencil has been until lately the rare privilege of the few, but the prominence now given to drawing in the first-class schools of the country bids fair to make it soon the endowment of the many.

Because of these considerations it is to be hoped that a large number of our citizens will be sufficiently interested to attend the annual exhibition of the drawing and clay modeling of the city schools.

As art becomes more a matter of fact and less an expression of fancy it is being more and more brought into every day life. If a love of art is to be aroused in us as a nation, it can be only by awakening in the children a love for the beautiful. Of the Greeks it was said that "even the fishermen who dried their nets on the shores of the sea were as good critics of a statue or a poem as our best educated people are now." This faculty could only have been gained by a familiarity with beauty from earliest childhood.

Miss Lucy Crane says "that this artistic sense may be counted as a sixth sense—that it exists in every one, though in a greater or less degree, and can be cultivated as are the other senses."

Drawing, as a part of education, develops the capacity to appreciate as well as the capacity to do. Let the people see to it that "the children of to-day who are the society of to-morrow" be educated to bring out the best there is in them, to bring them into the most desirable relationship with the world at large and fit them for life.

The world does not ask what we know, it is what we can do. That implies honest purpose, active brain and skill.

CAPTAIN SMITH'S DEATH.

Additional Particulars of the Fatal Accident to a Popular C. and O. Conductor.

[Covington Commonwealth.]

The news of the accidental death of Captain Richard L. Smith was a great shock to the community. Mr. Smith was a conductor on the C. and O. railroad, his run being from Cincinnati to Huntington, W. Va. As usual, he arrived at the Cincinnati station from his run at 8:13 Tuesday morning, and, as has been his custom, he took No. 1, the south bound K. C. train from there a few moments later for his home at No. 100 West Fifteenth street, jumping off under the bridge at Fifteenth and Washington streets, but in doing so he struck a standing freight car on the east side of the train upon which he had been riding and was thrown back under the train which he had just left and which was in motion, the wheels of the car passing over his body and crushing it in a frightful manner.

The train, which was under control of Conductor Joe Romp, was stopped as soon as possible and the body was tenderly lifted from the ground. Dr. Chas. Kearns was at once summoned, and the wounded man removed to St. Elizabeth's hospital. On the way the doctor notified the unfortunate man he had only a few moments to live, and he expressed a wish to see his wife.

She was hastily summoned to his dying bed, and arrived in time to be recognized and take a sorrowful farewell of her idolized husband, who died in her arms a few moments after her arrival.

Captain Smith had been railroading thirty-eight years, starting originally as a newsboy on the old K. C. in 1861. He gradually advanced and in 1866 was braking with Captain Crout, who was a close friend and now conductor of the Falmouth accommodation on K. C. division.

When the C. and O. was first built Captain Smith left the K. C. to link his fortune with that road and was rapidly advanced to the responsible position which he held at the time of his death.

A more popular man could not be found among railroad men in this vicinity.

Every one admired him for his many qualities and gentlemanly manners, and his death is indeed a sad blow to those who knew him best. He was fifty-four years of age, a member in good standing of Order of Railroad Conductors (O. R. C.), a Knight Templar and a Mason of high degree.

He leaves a wife and two children, one five and the other one year old.

His stricken wife is well nigh prostrated with her terrible loss. She and her husband were more like lovers than the matured couple they were and her loving heart is nearly broken.

He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. THE TIGER TOBACCO TRANSPLANTER.

Makes the farmer absolutely independent of the weather. He sets his plants when he gets his ground ready, rain or shine. The superiority of the Tiger over all other Transplanters has been plainly demonstrated during seasons of severe drouth, when experiment proved it to be the only machine that could be depended upon to give a good stand of plants under any and all weather conditions. With the TIGER the plants are properly set. The roots are in the puddle formed by the water, loose earth being forced down around and above the plant. In effect the water valve on the TIGER stands still at each hill long enough to pour the water precisely where it is wanted—a feature that cannot be duplicated by any machine devised by man. THE TIGER PUTS THE WATER JUST WHERE IT IS NEEDED—AT THE ROOTS. There are many superior points on the TIGER that makes it far ahead of any other Transplanter ever put on the market. We ask your inspection of same and that you place your order at once, as the factory could not supply the demand last season and we, ourselves, were only able to get a portion of our orders filled. So do not delay, but place your order with us at once, that we may be able to supply you before our stock is exhausted. Remember first come first served.

The rainfall was rather light, the total precipitation being only 3.04 inches. The heaviest rain on any one day was on the 12th, amounting to one and ten hundredths of an inch. Rain fell on fifteen days,—a mere sprinkle, however, on seven days.

There were eleven cloudy, five partly cloudy and fifteen clear days during the month.

"Hootchie Kootchie" Crowd Fined.

"La Belle Fortina," a woman connected with the John Robinson show, was arrested Wednesday for disorderly conduct and giving a lewd and lascivious dance known as the "hootchie kootchie" dance. The dance was given in a small tent near the main show. She pleaded guilty in the Police Court and was fined $23.90.

Fred Griffin, who had the management of the tent, was also fined $23.90 for permitting lewd and scandalous conduct.

Chief of Police Donovan warned them beforehand that they would be promptly arrested if they attempted to give the dance, but they heeded not and were run in.

INFORMATION WANTED.

How Many Hands Can Maysville Furnish For a Big Shoe Factory?

Before the question as to the reopening of the shoe factory here and operating it on a larger scale can be settled, it is necessary to ascertain how much labor Maysville can furnish for the enterprise.

Lists have therefore been opened at M. C. Hutchison's and Rees Wallingford's stores in the Sixth ward, Armstrong & Son's store in Fifth ward and at all the drug stores down town, where information as to the number of hands can be left.

Let girls and boys and men and women who are willing to work in such a factory leave word at once at one of the places named. It's not necessary to be a skilled hand; you can learn the trade.

If the factory is established here, between 400 and 600 hands will be needed.

If you are willing to work in such a factory and have not yet left your name at one of the places named, do so at once.

The object in this is simply to find out whether Maysville can furnish the required number of hands.

HE WAS ASTOUNDED.

An Austrian Officer's Comment on the Destruction of Cervera's Fleet by Uncle Sam's Navy.

Captain Taylor gives an amusing account in the May Century of his interview with an Austrian Lieutenant, who boarded the Indiana immediately after the fight at Santiago:

He was in full uniform, with a brilliant display of epaulets and gold lace, white waistcoat and trousers. He found us covered with the smoke and dust of battle, groups of half-naked men lining up to salute him as he passed, their faces streaked with powder smoke and coal dust. He reached me on the bridge, finally, in a state of polite bewilderment, and presented his Captain's request for permission to pass in through our blockading lines and bring out from Santiago Austrian refugees desiring to leave that besieged town. After referring him to Admiral Sampson, and telling him he would be found some distance to the westward, he asked for news, and I told him we had just come out of action with Cervera's squadron. He showed great surprise, and said:

"Then there has been a battle?"

"Yes," I replied.

"And the result?" he asked eagerly.

"We have defeated them."

"But where is Cervera's fleet now?" he inquired.

"His flagship, the Maria Teresa, is there, Lieutenant," I answered, pointing, at the same time, to the beach a few miles distant.

"But I see nothing there but some smoke, Captain!"

"It is the smoke of the Teresa burning, Lieutenant; she is a wreck upon the beach."

He was silent, and I continued:

"Close to her on the beach you will see another column of smoke; that is the Oquendo burning. On this side, nearer to us, is the Pluton, sunk in the breakers; and the Furor is near her, but is on the bottom in deeper water, and is not visible."

"But," he interrupted, "you have then destroyed half those splendid vessels of Cervera's!"

"Wait, Lieutenant," I continued, "and look a few miles farther to the westward, and you will see another column of smoke; that is the Viscaya, on the beach near Aserraderos. As to the Colon, she is still farther to the westward, out of sight from us here, but you will see her directly as your Captain sails in that direction to find Admiral Sampson, who is at that end of our line."

His eyes ranged along the shore as I pointed out the different vessels.

"Mein Gott!" he exclaimed. "Then you have destroyed the whole of that splendid squadron! I did not think it possible."

Then after a moment more of silent astonishment he said, with a polite sympathy which concealed eager professional curiosity:

"And your injuries, Captain? What losses has the American squadron sustained?"

"None," I replied.

"But, Captain, you do not understand; it is what casualties—what ships lost or disabled—that I ask."

"None, Lieutenant," I said. "The Indiana was struck twice, suffered no injury, no loss. The other ships are virtually in the same condition. We are all of us perfectly ready for another battle—as much so as before Cervera came out this morning."

His astonishment was now complete.

"Mein Gott!" he exclaimed again. "Admiral Sampson's fleet has destroyed these great Spanish ships, and without injury to his own squadron! Sir, it is unheard of. I must go to inform my Captain."
